Pet Policy

“The average dog is a nicer person than the average person,” said the famous American film and television scriptwriter Andy Rooney. And he was right. Lump, Picasso’s loveable dachshund, was an inspirational muse for the artist, and he dedicated a series of paintings, oil paintings and serigraphs to his pet. Cara Delevigne has even taken her dog with her on the Chanel catwalk. When they lived in the White House, Michelle and Barack Obama frequently posed with their dogs, Bo and Sunny.

Conditions

At Concept Hotel Group, we understand you want to take your furry friend with you everywhere, especially on holiday. You love spending your free time with them, and finding places where you can comfortably relax with your faithful companion is increasingly difficult. As luck would have it, we at Concept Hotel Group accept canines up to 8 kg and guide dogs under these simple conditions:

- o A complete and updated vaccination card for rabies, parvovirus and leishmaniasis.
- o Maximum weight allowed: 8 kg.
- o Hygiene and care are the responsibility of the person in charge of the dog.
- o It is important that the dog is docile and well-trained.
- o It is not allowed to leave the dog unattended inside the room.
- o The dog must always be kept on a leash in common areas.
- o The person in charge of the dog is responsible for any damage it may cause.

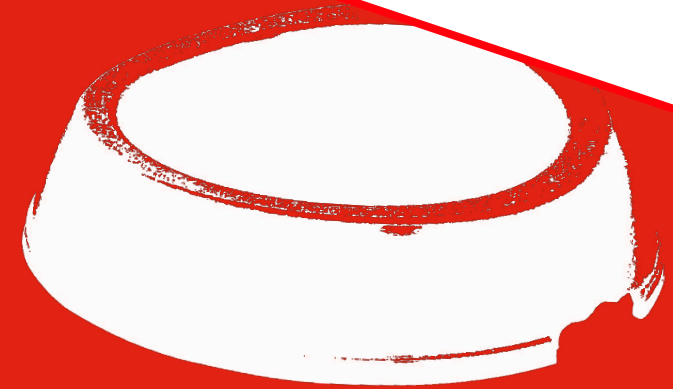

Welcome Pack

To make your stay more comfortable while thinking about the comfort of your pet, we offer you a welcome pack that includes the following:

A bag of treats to reward you for being your four-legged friend's best mate

A portable feeder/drinker

A Luxury Braco viscoelastic bed so they can sleep like a puppy
