Sample Press Release

Tacosanto, located in the heart of Playa d'en Bossa, brings the most authentic essence of Mexico to Ibiza through a vibrant concept that combines gastronomy, music, and a festive attitude. Spread across three different spaces (terrace, indoor dining room, and a poolside lounge), the venue is enhanced by a carefully curated aesthetic, where Aída Miró's murals stand out, adding character and personality to the experience.

On the menu, traditional flavors take center stage with options such as suadero tacos, cochinita pibil, chicken tinga, or mushroom fillings, alongside classics like nachos with melted cheese, frozen margaritas, and a selection of mezcals. All of this creates a laid-back, colorful experience designed for sharing.

With a dynamic program that includes themed parties, pool events, mariachis, and DJs, Tacosanto positions itself as one of the liveliest meeting points on the island for those looking to enjoy authentic Mexican energy in a unique setting.
